

WATCH

ON THE RUN

Food Bank for Westchester partnered with Pace University for its first-ever “Miles for Meals” 5K Fun Run at Pace’s Pleasantville campus. The event raised more than $25,000 (the equivalent to 100,000 meals) for Food Bank for Westchester to continue to help feed those struggling with hunger in the community.

- 1. Pace University students
- 2. Leslie Gordon and Kacey Morabito
- 3. 5K runners B

OLD TIMES, NEW FACES

It seemed like old times at the US Open Sept. 10 as 2010 and '13 men's champ Rafael Nadal repeated. But a day earlier, Sloane Stephens was a fresh face on the women's side, defeating Madison Keys for the singles title. Photographs by USTA/Darren Carroll and Pete Staples.

- 4. Rafael Nadal
- 5. Sloane Stephens
- 6. Madison Keys

PERSIAN THANKSGIVING

Untermeyer Gardens in Yonkers was the site of a gala to celebrate Mehregan, the ancient Persian festival of thanksgiving for the harvest. Attended by the Israeli and Moroccan ambassadors, Saudi Arabian Embassy delegates and Iranian-American notables, the event featured a performance by Sattar, a Persian singer based in Los Angeles. The evening also included the reading of a Persian poem, the burning of esphand, a top of herb seed burned over charcoal to protect children from evil, and an illumination provided by a giant bonfire. Photographs by Ralph Gabriner and Jessica Norman.

- 7. Bonfire at the Temple of the Sky
- 8. Roya Assil, Isabel Nazarian, Doris Elnekaveh, Mitra Damaghi and Mehrnaz Hakakian
- 9. Jon Corzine, Vicki Sakhai and Ann Carmel
- 10. Sattar performing in the Temple of the Sky
- 11. Jenny duPont and Pierre duPont V
- 12. Eric Schneiderman, Andrea Stewart-Cousins, Nazee Moinian, Talie Danon and Danny Danon
- 13. John Vaske and Farnaz Voussoughian
- 14. Mike Spano
- 15. Dancing in the Temple of the Sky
- 16. Jon Corzine

FIND PAIN RELIEF.

