

The Untermyer Gardens Conservancy is dedicated to the revitalization and maintenance of Samuel Untermyer's monumental garden, now a City of Yonkers municipal park enjoyed by more than 75,000 visitors a year. Although much has been accomplished, much work remains ahead, and your support is deeply appreciated.

2019 HONOREE MARTIN GINSBURG

Martin Ginsburg has played a leading role in the revitalization of the Yonkers waterfront and of other communities along the Hudson River. As founder and principal of GDC, he has developed numerous outstanding properties, including several in the Greystone neighborhood just west of Untermyer Gardens. An architect who graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Martin has received numerous design and community planning awards. He was the corporate chair of the Soirée in 2017 and has been a generous supporter of the Conservancy's efforts to revitalize Untermyer Gardens. Martin and his wife Irene are longtime residents of Dobbs Ferry.

DIRECTIONS

Untermyer Gardens is located at 945 North Broadway in Yonkers, just south of St. John's Riverside Hospital.

By car: From the Saw Mill River Parkway, take Exit 9/Executive Boulevard; follow Executive Boulevard to its end and turn left on North Broadway. Limited parking onsite; additional parking across the street at 944 North Broadway (Northway Medical Center).

By train: Metro North Hudson Line to Greystone Station. Roundtrip shuttle service is available by request; please email cmichelsen@untermyergardens.org.

Cover: Robert Zakanitch. Iris, 2008. Gouache and graphite on paper. Used with permission of the artist. An internationally recognized artist whose work is in many museum collections, Mr. Zakanitch is based in Yonkers.

Last year we completed essential work on structural features at Untermyer Gardens, which enables 2019 to be a year of major planting and spectacular horticulture! Please join us to celebrate the power of flowers to brighten our lives.
